

Dr. McCashland is a founding partner and visionary of TalentMine, LLC, a global, performance-based talent assessment firm that helps employers tap into the potential of their human capital. She also consults with companies in the design of strengths programs to turn talent into performance. McCashland received both her bachelor's and master's degrees at UNL, and earned her doctorate in Organizational Leadership from the University of Southern California. The focus of her session at the seminar will be "Shifting the Performance Curve."

Leadership 101: "Common Sense for Real Results" is being sponsored by the Lincoln Independent Business Association (LIBA) and Rembolt Ludtke, LLP.<-->
